

Give your office the professional edge

Save time

, Save money

Designed for the Real Estate industry, and specifically tailored to your business, this program will help you create professional brochures in 3 easy steps. This solution is guaranteed to save you time and money.

You will immediately see how much quicker and easier it is to create templates and brochures that look like they've come straight from the printers! The money you save by printing internally will really add up, plus you have more control over printing quantities yet still maintaining a professional finish and consistent look.

The inbuilt search facility enables you to enter data into a range of fields to customise a search to suit your customers needs.

Whether it be a price range, specific number of bedrooms or an extra bathroom they require, the results will only show properties that meet their criteria.

Best of all, with a press of a button, you can printout the property addresses listed professional on company letterhead.
